RESOLUTIONS.

At a meeting of the police force yesterday afternoon the following tribute of respect

WHEREAS, the summons of Almighty God, on Sunday, June 1, 1890, called from this earthly duties our honored Commissioner of Police, Capt. George Crockett Knox, of the members of the Los Angeles police force, this day assembled, most earnestly wish to express our very great admiration of the character of our dead friend and brother man, our true respect and love for him, and our deep sorrow because of his death. Therefore, be it who twenty years ago received from the South George Crockett Knox, received him a bright graduate, at an early age, from the University of Tennessee; later a thoroughly competent practical engineer; received a man who in the years from 1861 to 1865, in the very front of battle, fighting for a cause he truly believed to be right, had won the love of comrades and the admiration and respect of foes; received him blessed with the good-will and kindly wishes of all the dwellers in his old homes of Memphis and New Orleans, have now, by his death, lost from their midst one of their most truly worthy members; a capable man; a man of clear perception and positive opinions; a man of stern, splendid integrity; a man brave and unyielding in the advocacy of the right, yet gentle and kindly as only brave men are; a fraternal man, ever giving sympathy and help to those in need; a man who proved himself a dutiful and obedient son, an affectionate brother, a loving and tender husband and a devoted father; a man that we should emulate.

Resolved, that we, the members of the police force, have lost one of our very truest and most noble friends; a friend true enough and brave enough to chasten that he might improve; who knew that rigid discipline must be maintained, and that insubordination and willful neglect of duty must be punished; a friend ever willing to help, who had told our chief to call on him at any hour of the day or night that a riot or any other serious trouble made help nec-

Resolved, that to the nearer friends of the deceased, to the venerable mother and loving sister, to the stricken widow and the five beautiful little children we offer our deepest sympathy, our heartfelt condolence in this the hour of their greatest trial, and we hope that He who hath infinite power and wisdom and kindness will comfort and protect them.

THE LOS ANGELES POLICE FORCE.
J. M. GLASS, Chief.

A resolution was unanimously adopted requesting the city papers to copy the above tribute of respect; also that a copy of the same be forwarded to the widow of the deceased.

A vote of thanks was tendered J. J. Aiken, general manager of the cable-car company, for transportation to and from the funeral.

EAST SIDE.

Notes Criminal, Personal and Social.

Mr. Randall, who has been traveling north for the past two months, recently returned looking well.

A company of young people from the East Side called upon Max French last evening, and also visited Westlake Park for a boat ride.

An elderly lady making a purchase of

A company of West Side bums, consisting of one man and two of the weaker sex, were carousing about the power-house for some time yesterday. By the time the police appeared they had secured a hack and returned across the river.

Miss Mamie Thompson is on the sick list. Officer Kleahardson has returned to his work after a short vacation, and is much refreshed. A suggestion is made that while retrenchment in the parks may be necessary, it might be well to dispense with the high-priced help and get more service for the same money. Ed Merritt returned from Newport Landing yesterday. Miss Kittie Pratt of Redlands is visiting the city, and is the guest of Mrs. Capt.

The pupils and teachers of the East Los Angeles Baptist Sunday-school enjoyed a delightful picnic and ramble in the arroyo above Pasadena on Friday last.

The Super War.

Jerry Moody, chief of the supers at the Grand Opera-house, was arrested yesterday by Officer Leverich on a warrant sworn out by J. T. Ellis. The arrest grows out of the recent war of the sans culottes, in a strike for fifty cents per night. Moody was released on $25 bail, and the case will be tried on the 12th, to which day the cases of Capt. Moody and the complainant, Ellis, have been set.

Off for Yosemite.

B. F. Coulter, Jr., and J. P. Thurston will start this morning on a trip to the Yosemite Valley. They will go by the direct route and return by way of San Francisco and the coast route, spending two or three months on the road and in the valley. The entire trip will be headed by Coulter.

trip will be made by wagon, and it is understood that as there are no snakes on the road they will need no antidote before reaching San Francisco.

ON THE RAIL.

The Rapid Transit and Its Ramifications.

POSSIBLY A BIG SCHEME IN VIEW.

Is the Santa Fe Backing It to Obtain Local Connections and Access to Ocean Traffic?

The Rapid-transit steamship scheme is growing in magnitude. There was a rumor out yesterday to the effect that they are negotiating for the Los Angeles and Pacific road to Santa Monica, and if they get it they will have a wharf at both San Pedro and Santa Monica. The Rapid Transit and the Santa Monica roads have rights of way to the Plaza, and it will be but little trouble to connect the two roads.

According to rumor the Oregon Navigation and Improvement Company, which owns the Pacific Coast Steamship lines that run to San Pedro and San Diego, has had trouble with both the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific, and they have made up their minds to break away. If this rumor is true the chances are that the whole thing is a scheme backed up by the Santa Fe people. All the indications go to show that there will be a red-hot war between the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe in the near future. A railroad man, who is well posted, said to a Times representative yesterday:

"Huntington and Mangel are looked upon by railroad men as the hardest fighters in the business, and they have put on their war paint. It will not be boys' play when it comes, and somebody is sure to get hurt. Mangel is the only railroad man in the United States that Huntington is afraid of, and as the Santa Fe is now in a position to fight, it would not surprise me to see the battle opened any day. The Santa Fe will cut into the Southern Pacific's business wherever there is a chance, and I am sure that it will get in San Francisco and San Pedro very soon."

A NEW ROUTE.
Fred Trimmer, a correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune, in that paper of the 29th ult. gives his views on the Union Pacific extension to Southern California. According to his ideas it will reach Los Angeles over the route mapped out by THE TIMES the other day. He says:

"An announcement to your readers that by going south through Utah to the end of the railroad and then reaching a steamship connection to the ocean by staging over a gap of ninety miles would hardly be credited, but it is, or soon will be true."

"There has been much talk about the connection to Southern California, and various routes have been quoted, but I have not seen anything said about the simplest of routes, for facts as to which Chief Engineer Stanton of the Colorado-river expedition is responsible."

"It will be remembered that an expedition under Stanton was organized from Denver, and during last winter made a careful survey of the cañon from Green River to the sea."

"The object was to ascertain the feasibility of building a line along the river from Colorado so as to make a short route to the coast."

"The report declares the scheme quite practicable, and shows how vastly Southern California would be benefited by getting cheap Colorado route."

"To my mind this report, taken together with maps of Southern Nevada, also goes to show how much simpler the same object can be achieved by the extension of the existing and authorized Union Pacific line, and at a much greater benefit to Salt Lake, and Utah in general."

"Stanton's report reads: 'Nearly twenty years ago this route (the Colorado) was open to navigation for large steamboats, and Capt. Meloy took the first boat 375 miles from the sea as far as the mouth of the Rio Virgin, at the Colorado river, and from this interior country reached it from San Francisco by boat. Now the terminus of the Union Pacific in Nevada, at Clover Valley, is by close scaling, exactly 85 miles from the mouth of the Virgin River.'

"Further on Stanton says: 'A railroad from San Diego up the Colorado River to the Rio Virgin, extending over the mountains just east of San Diego) can be built as cheaply as some of our eastern lines across the plains. And before the distance from the mouth of the Virgin River to Clover Valley, terminus of the Union Pacific, is eighty-eight miles. The Government map shows a water grade all the way.'

"Building through the cañon at an immense outlay would accomplish no more than by closing this gap of eighty-eight miles. It is by close scaling, exactly 85 miles as well as northern trunk-line connections."

"If the coast towns are discussing this matter in earnest, these points are worth close study."

SANTA FE CHANGES.
Monday's San Diego Sun makes the following predictions regarding probable changes in the Santa Fe offices:

The Los Angeles papers are again predicting changes among the Santa Fe officials, owing to the purchase of the Atlantic and Pacific by the former company. S. B. Hynes is the general freight and passenger agent at Los Angeles and W. A. Bissell holds a similar position with the Atlantic and Pacific at San Francisco. It is said that Mr. Hynes would, by reason of past experience, be a valuable man to station at St. Louis, in which event the situation would be simplified materially. Those on the inside say since the recent election the influence of F. Goddard, third vice-president, as also that of W. F. White, passenger traffic manager, has become considerably lessened. As these are the men who have been sustained the Pacific Coast appointments, it is barely possible a change of programme may be on the tapis. Should the consolidation be effected—and certainly it would be done with many economical advantages—there are those who do not hesitate to say that Bissell will get away with the appointment.

NOTES.
The Santa Fe overland from the east was ten hours late last night on account of the burning of a bridge on the Atlantic and Pacific near Williams Station. Trains will be running regularly today.

General Freight and Passenger Agent S. B. Hynes of the Santa Fe, who has been in Topeka and Chicago during the past month, will return home today.

The Santa Fe and Union Depot Company that was formed in this city a couple of months ago. If the union depot scheme falls through, the Santa Fe will build a fine depot on its lot at the foot of Second street.

The boys who came in with the Southern Pacific trains from Yuma yesterday say the day was the hottest of the season on the desert.

AN EXCURSION PARTY.
The following excursionists arrived from the East over the Santa Fe route yesterday: T. P. Cook of Boston, Miss L. Archibald of Boston, Mrs. M. Branson of Chicago, Mrs. L. Leahy of Chicago, G. W. TARGET PRACTICE

At Camp Verde, Arizona, in March and April.

General orders No. 11, issued May 31st, by Assistant Adjutant General Volkmar, gives the result of target practice in Arizona during last March and April. Fort Verde Post shows one sharpshooter from the general staff, while Company K, Fourth Cavalry, has 1 sharpshooter, 33 marksmen. 10 first-class, 4 second-class and 4 third-class; individual figure of merit, 84.49; Company H, Ninth Infantry, has 2 sharpshooters, 16 marksmen, 8 first-class, 3 second-class, 1 third-class; individual figure of merit, 86.26.

The list of sharpshooters in the department who qualified during the months of March and April, 1890, is as follows:

Rank	Name	Score	Figure of Merit
Capt.	W. Steinhilber	383	127
Sergeant	Adams	354	151
First Sergeant	Cosgrove	362	142
Private	J. P. Smith	391	121

A NOVEL DEVICE

To Test the Value of an Advertisement.

The shoe house of Meyer Lewis, which, after thoroughly canvassing the situation, selected THE TIMES as its advertising medium in Los Angeles, made a novel drive in its announcement yesterday. In words and figures it was as follows, to wit:

"Twenty-five cents will be paid by us for a copy of this advertisement, in this way. In the next column we state a number of prices. Whoever cuts out this advertisement and purchases any of the goods mentioned, will receive a discount of 25 per cent. Without the advertisement we will cost the price quoted, which is only one-half their value."

This was designed to test the efficacy of the advertisement, and yesterday the store was besieged with ladies who had the slip, and who claimed the bonus offered on a purchase. If the rush continues at this rate the house will have to employ an additional corps of clerks before the week is out.

KING'S RIVER

Reported to Be on a Mighty Tear—Much Damage Done.

Constant Benedict of Santa Monica, who went up to Fresno about ten days ago to arrest a horse-thief from this county who is said to be working on a ranch near that city, returned home empty handed yesterday. Benedict got within six miles of the ranch, but was stopped by the high water. The country in the neighborhood of King's River is overflowed for miles. The flood is greater than ever before, and the whole country looks like an immense sea. Fences are under water for miles back from the river, and the water was still rising when the officer left. The overflow was caused by melting snow in the mountains back of Fresno and Visalia. It is impossible to estimate the damage done to crops and stock ranches.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

He Was Embezzling Dr. Wong's Rig.

Crescenta Valencia was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer O'Regan and is now running over his trouble in a cell in the city prison. Valencia, while intoxicated, stepped into Dr. Wong's buggy, which was in front of his office on Upper Main street, and was driving away when overhauled and transferred to the patrol wagon.

War Songs.
Illinois Hall was about half filled last night at the concert of war songs, given under the direction of O. W. Kyle of Pasadena.

The programme was a long one, of 15 numbers, not including several encores. The chorus, though by no means forty strong, as promised, sang well and in good martial, stirring style, reviving very pleasantly memories of the days when the war songs were on every tongue.

special mention for the strength, sweetness and accuracy of her singing, so helpful in choral or quartette singing.
The Polymita quartette sang surprisingly well and has fine material to improve upon still, especially a heavy bass.
Capt. Lawrence Buckley, who was to have given a recitation during the first and second parts of the programme, was absent, but his place was filled most satisfactorily by the Clayton children of Pasadena, who sang a comical duet about George Washington and his cherry-chopping, very prettily.
Jason Brown, who was expected, did not come in from his home.

Kicking Against the Water Supply.
The Crown Hills Improvement Club held a meeting last evening, which was principally devoted to a discussion of the water question. It was voted that the quality is poor, the quantity deficient, the price exorbitant and the service altogether unsatisfactory. A committee consisting of E. H. Hutchinson, D. W. Field and Jesse Yarnell was appointed to represent the club at the mass meeting to be held in Temperance Temple tomorrow evening.

How It Has Grown.
A statement recently published by the State Loan and Trust Company of this city shows some remarkable evidence of progress during the past eleven months. The total cash on hand and in other banks July 1, 1889, was $79,635.26; now it is $236,621.78. The loans, then amounting to $260,828.78, are now $656,704.97. The total resources, then $540,464.04, are now $897,326.75. The capital has been increased from $192,391 to $471,854, and the deposits from $144,222.95 to $459,153.06.

SILVER has fallen to 101½. The doubt about silver legislation during the present session probably accounts for this.

The Senate bill to provide for obligatory attendance at school of children in Alaska has been reported. Alaska is going ahead.

OREGON Republicans concede the election of a Democratic Governor. The Republicans elect the remainder of the State ticket, by majorities estimated from 5000 to 7000.

The Senate bill for preventing the adulteration of food and drugs was reported yesterday and placed on the calendar. It is a good measure, and should be passed.

AN Ontario paper announces that a resident of that section is shipping half a ton of strawberries east every day and cannot fill his orders. Southern California has plenty of resources, besides oranges.

MR. MCKINLEY says that Congress will probably not adjourn until late in August. How would it be for us to send a delegation to Washington, to help Congressman Vandever push our public building bill? His friends say that he needs assistance from us.

THE Trombone makes the proud stereotyped, corner-card boast that "it can be taken into the home with absolute safety." How can it reconcile such a statement with the publication yesterday of so wild, sensational and revolutionary an editorial as that entitled, "Importance of Early Use of Fertilizers?"

The oldest aspirant for office from a standpoint of years in the city of San Francisco is Dr. Leavenworth of the Thirty-first District, who is being discussed as a possible candidate for the office of Supervisor on the Democratic ticket. He is one of the most widely known men on the Pacific Coast, and no complete history of California could be written without a mention of his name.

In a few months the operation of the federal constitution of the Central American republic goes into effect. The result will be watched with much interest in the United States. The States included in the compact are Guatemala, Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The following are the statistics of the five States which will form the new republic:

State	Pop'n.	Sq. M.	Area	Foreign Trade
Guatemala	651,131	7,225	1,182,291	$2,752,265
Salvador	450,000	4,500	1,100,000	$1,000,000
Honduras	450,000	4,500	1,100,000	$1,000,000
Nicaragua	250,000	4,500	1,100,000	$1,000,000
Costa Rica	250,000	4,500	1,100,000	$1,000,000
Totals	2,050,000	12,925	5,482,291	$11,452,265

THE Sacramento Record-Union moralizes thusly on the falling off in the population of Oakland and San Francisco, as shown by the school census:

Has it occurred to the people of Oakland and San Francisco that the falling off of children in the population of those cities, as shown by the school census reports, may, in large part, be accounted for by the fact that marriage is much discouraged by the present system of having women enter all kinds of business? Has it occurred to any one that the advent of women into business walks discourages child-bearing, and that the decline in the juvenile census returns may have a physical reason, and one that touches at the core the existence of good social conditions? If we are not greatly mistaken the census of 1890 will startle the whole country by certain revelations. The truth is that we are, as rapidly as we possibly can do it, encouraging the women of the race by encouraging them to enter into business and other walks that are destructive of domesticity, and that are at war with the true purposes and highest objects of a woman's life.

Gov. NICHOLS of Louisiana denounces the Louisiana lottery scheme. The proposition to pay the State a million dollars a year for the renewal of the franchise is, he declares, a piece of jobbery "by and through an immense corruption fund to mass all the bad elements in the State, white and black, and, by their united vote, to ride rough-shod over the respectable and worthy people of the State." He warns the Legislature that this gambling corporation "will own and hold the purchasable vote solidly in the hollow of its hands forever, and through it and by it, the liberties, the property and the honor of the people of Louisiana are at its feet." He declares that he will never consent to the outrage, and that, should it succeed, no part of the responsibility or shame will rest upon him.

IS CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER A PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRANT?

A Washington dispatch to the Boston Journal states that the dissenting opinion of Chief Justice Fuller in the case of the Mormon Church has caused almost as much commotion at the Capital, especially among the politicians and lawyers, as the decision of the court itself. The decision was one of the most important that has been rendered for many years. It seems to finally put an end to the Mormon Church as a hierarchy.

Coming so soon after the decision of the court in the Iowa prohibition case, which was prepared also by the Chief Justice, the Washington correspondent says that politicians have begun to inquire whether the present Chief Justice has not the same aspirations for the Presidency which so long characterized his predecessor, Mr. Chase. Some of the Democratic politicians have suggested that it is possible that Grover Cleveland, by his selection of the Chief Justice, prepared for himself a strong and unexpected rival before the next Democratic National Convention. The Chief Justice comes from the section which the great rainbow chaser, Brice, believed to be the region of the future dominion of the Democratic party, and Mr. Brice expects to have something to do with that convention. With the advance of the new States, the Democrats realize that it is essential for them to be no longer the party of one State, so far as the Presidential campaign is concerned, the State of New York, and that it is important for them to put themselves in line with the sentiment of the new West and bid for the support of some of the old Republican States. These are some of the suggestions that one hears in view of the two decisions of the Chief Justice, which present in such a vigorous way, if one chooses to read them for that purpose, the platform of a party. Will it be Melville W. Fuller instead of Grover Cleveland as Democratic candidate in 1892?

TEXAS.

The New York Sun has been discovering the Southwest. It has been investigating the reason for the flow of so much New York capital in that direction, and has ascertained that there is a big country down this corner of the Union. In a recent issue it devotes over a column to an interesting article on the resources of Texas. Texas is rather outside the confines of what is generally considered as the Southwest, but after a little the Sun, which printed such a readable article about our boom, may re-discover Southern California also.

Texas is indeed a grand State. Her own citizens have not yet been able to gain an adequate conception of her resources. The Rev. Dr. Barrows of Chicago recently used this illustration: "If the great State of New York were set down in Texas, and a man were sent out on horseback, without a chart or compass, to look for New York, he might ride an entire year without stumbling upon it." Texas claims to be self-supporting—that if walked in, she could produce all the comforts and luxuries her people now enjoy, from tropical fruits to natural ice.

In one thing Texas is far behind other States—that is, in her State debt, which is only $4,000,000. On the other hand, the public school fund is the most munificent of any State in the Union. There is an available cash fund of $11,000,000, and public lands devoted to this purpose valued at $60,000,000. In less than five years the public school fund of the State will exceed $100,000,000. In addition to this, every county in the State has a public school fund of proportionate value.

Texas expects the present census to show a population in the State of more than 3,000,000. This will be an increase of 95 per cent. over the returns for 1880, and the increase during the decade 1870-1880 was proportionately as great. If as densely populated as the State of New York, Texas would contain 28,000,000 of people.

Texas is first among the States of the Union in cattle, sheep and cotton. It is first in the average value per acre of corn, wheat and oats. The farm products of Texas exceed in value all those of the New England States, with those of Maryland and Delaware added. It is the third State in the Union in railroad mileage.

Texas is a wonderful State of a wonderful country. All it lacks is better means of communication and—the climate of California.

A PLEA FOR PLAIN LANGUAGE.

The London Daily Telegraph protests against the heavy Latin and Greek names which specialists are so fond of using. It quotes the opinion of a celebrated gardener, who is convinced that the reason why English people take so much less interest in the study of botany than do Germans and Scandinavians is to be found in the extraordinary compound classical names of plants and their varieties which are inserted in British text-books of the science. The Telegraph says:

Botany is not by any means the only science which sins in this way; but its offense is the most glaring, because the objects with which it deals are so beautiful, and its terminology is so exceptionally atrocious. "Monocotyledonous" is a term which, like "Puccinia," might reasonably be employed in a game where words have to be said rapidly several times over under pain of a forfeit. It is difficult also to derive much mental comfort from such a sentence as the following, a mere sample of the crimes of professed botanists: "The cells of the medullary rays, stretching between the fibrovascular bundles and continuous with their cambium cells, become converted into secondary cambium, which eventually coalesces with the cambium rings of the fibrovascular bundles." Lives there the man with soul so dead who would not shut his book with a bang or precipitate it into the fire on having such a literary outrage perpetrated in his presence? What good purpose is served by calling the lower bark "endophloem," and the outer bark "epithelium"? We get one word instead of two, but we have a conundrum thrown in. "Many-ribbed" is every word as good and serviceable a word as "multicostate," and against the whole tribe of terms such as "eleutherocephalous," "antherine dehiscence," "reduplicate aestivation," "hy-pernourous," and the like, it is necessary to declare war to the knife.

There is much common sense in this view of the subject. These jaw-breaking compounds from the dead languages undoubtedly deter many who are not Greek and Latin scholars from pursuing their scientific studies. Why cannot American scientists make a new departure in this direction, and introduce the vernacular wherever possible.

LONDON advices state that Stanley's overbearing manner and assumption of superiority have provoked enmity toward him in English quarters where it is most desirable that he should be regarded with favor. His attempt to introduce African manners into English society, while endeavoring to direct English enterprise into Africa, has proved a lamentable failure.

To Officer Houston he said he knew nothing about the horse, and at the station he told Clerk Cottle that the horse belonged to Romero. He was booked on suspicion.

A Boy Saves a Train.
 OMAHA (Nebr.), June 3.—The heroism of a boy named Mike Haley prevented a wreck on the Union Pacific flyer, between here and South Omaha. At a place called Summit, young Haley saw two men unlock a switch and turn it. He ran to South Omaha and notified the trainmen just as the train, which consisted of twelve coaches, was pulling out. There was an unusually large number of passengers on board, and had the attempt not been discovered the loss of life must have been great.

The Village Blotted Out and Six of Its Inhabitants Killed.

An Iowa Asylum Blown Down—Two Inmates Perish.

Lightning Strikes a Powder-house, Causing a Terrific Explosion—An Iowa Village Swept Away by Floods.

By Telegraph to The Times.

LINCOLN (Nebr.), June 3.—1:45 a.m.—It is just reported that Bradshaw, a hamlet of some five hundred inhabitants, about fifty miles west of Lincoln, was swept away late tonight by a cyclone.

Six persons are reported killed and twenty-five or more injured. Wires are down and no further details can be learned.

WRECKED BY THE WIND.

An Asylum Partly Destroyed—Two Inmates Killed.

COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa), June 3.—The Nonpareil's Glenwood special says: One of the most disastrous storms that ever visited this section struck Glenwood early this morning. The State institution for feeble-minded was blown down. The roof of the building was crushed by a falling smokestack, which tore its way through the building, killing two inmates, Willie Gline and Wesley Emery. Their bodies were crushed almost to a pulp.

Six other inmates were severely injured, of whom one or two may die. The new building in course of construction withstood the storm. Several other buildings were wrecked. The cannery factory had one side blown in, while the Glenwood mills were badly damaged.

AN ILL-FATED VILLAGE.

The village of Loveland seems doomed. Last Saturday night a cloud burst carried away a number of houses and buildings. One family was rescued from a tree top on the following morning, while the rest of the village was swept away. The storm which prevailed over this section last night completes the demolition of the village. The creek, which was swollen by the previous storm, overflowed from last night's rains, and carried everything before it. Nothing is left of the hamlet save houses which stood on high ground. No loss of life is reported thus far.

BLOWN UP.

A Powder-house Struck by Lightning—One Life Lost.

MANFIELD (O.), June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] This afternoon, during a heavy storm, lightning struck Tracy & Avery's powder-house, located a mile east of the city. The house contained twenty thousand pounds of powder, which exploded, causing a tremendous report. Hundreds of windows in the city were broken and the china and glassware knocked from the shelves and people thrown from their feet. Many buildings in the vicinity were badly wrecked.

Two frame dwelling-houses on the opposite side of the street from the powder-house were leveled to the ground. One of the houses was vacant. The other was occupied by Henry Root, his wife and two children. The husband was absent at the time of the explosion. A 6-months-old babe was instantly killed. The mother and other child are thought to be fatally injured. Nothing remains of the powder-house. The bricks are scattered in all directions, some being found a quarter of a mile distant.

All the cherries that sold for less than one dollar were in poor order. There was good demand for cherries in good order.

Porter Bros. & Co. sold two carloads of cherries: Black Tartarians, 75c@1.60; Black Oxbrights, $1.05 to $1.20; Black Oregon, $1.05 to $1.20; Royal Annes, 80c to $1.60; Black Republicans, $1.10.

Soldier Boys at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, June 3.—Two hundred and fifty killed; three hundred and seventy-five wounded. These figures might have represented casualties at today's battle between the opposing forces composed of the various military companies in attendance upon the interstate competitive drill if the battle had been genuine. It was a representation of the battle of Metz, fought during the Franco-Prussian War. The competitive drill commenced today, and will be continued through the week. Tonight a grand military ball is in progress.

Naval Cadets Show Their Skill.

ANNAPOLIS (Md.), June 3.—The Board of Visitors to the Naval Academy was entertained today by great gun practice and seamanship on board the Wyoming. They were much pleased with the performances of the cadets. At dress parade this evening Cadet Bailey of Arkansas (first-class) was presented with a medal for the best score in gun practice.

The Binding-Twine Trust.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—A dispatch from Mason City, Iowa, says agents there have been instructed to sell binding twine of various kinds at an average of 4 cents below the prices of last year. This is believed to indicate that the binding-twine trust, which imposed such burdens on the farmers of this and other States, has been broken. This reduction in present prices will save many thousands of dollars to Iowa farmers alone.

Denver's Electric Road.

DENVER (Colo.), June 3.—Ten miles of electric street railroad was put into successful operation today, by the Denver Tramway Company. It is through the business part of the city and is the first electric road in Denver.

Des Moines River Lands.

ABDUCTED HIS CHILD.

A Sensation at Cleveland—Result of Domestic Infelicity.

CLEVELAND, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] A profound sensation was created here this afternoon by the announcement that Eugene H. Cowles, eldest son of the late Edwin Cowles, had violently abducted his daughter Florence, a girl of 9 years, and hurried her out of the State in spite of the efforts of the Sheriff and deputies to intercept them. Cowles married Alice, daughter of E. R. Hale, a leading banker of this city, ten years ago. The marriage did not result happily, and a few months ago a separation was agreed upon.

Cowles, on his frequent visits to this city, always sent for his daughter, who would usually spend the day with him in pursuance of the agreement of separation. Cowles came to the city on Monday, and in the afternoon, when Florence came to him, took and put her on the train and left the city. The will of Edwin Cowles left $5000 to each of his son and daughter. In the case of Eugene one-half the amount was secured to his wife. Dissatisfaction with this arrangement is said to be the cause of Eugene's course in abducting his child.

PACIFIC COAST.

RESULT OF THE ELECTION IN OREGON.

Republicans Win Everything Except Governor—Officers Trying to Arrest Engineer Dunn for the Oakland Disaster.

By Telegraph to The Times.
 PORTLAND (Or.), June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The Legislature will stand: Republicans, 60; Democrats, 30. The Senate will contain 22 Republicans and 8 Democrats; the House 38 Republicans and 22 Democrats. The figures cannot be materially changed by additional returns from two or three remote counties.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—A special dispatch to the Chronicle from Portland says: The causes which led to the defeat of D. F. Thompson, Republican candidate for Governor, are altogether local and personal. The Prohibition party, State Grange and Labor Union organizations east their solid vote for Penneyer, and the strife of the Republican factions in Portland caused Thompson to be cut deeply in this city. The whole Republican State ticket, except Governor, has about eight thousand majority, and the Republicans will have about sixty-two members of the Legislature out of ninety.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Senator Mitchell today received a message from Montgomery, member of the Oregon State Legislature, saying: "Oregon has endorsed the McKinley bill, and Hermann (Rep.) goes to Congress by 9000 majority. The Legislature is Republican by 21." Chairman Lotam of the Republican State central committee telegraphs: "The vote for Governor is very close. I am for H. Thompson (Rep.) will pull through."

THE OAKLAND DISASTER.

Officers Unable to Capture Engineer Dunn.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Sheriff Hale of Alameda county and several deputies have been keeping up the search for Engineer Dunn in order to serve a warrant charging him with manslaughter, which was issued by Coroner Evers of Oakland, after the latest yesterday into the cause of the drawbridge disaster last Friday. All efforts to locate Dunn have been fruitless so far, and the officers have concluded that he is attempting to escape. Sheriff Hale has sent telegrams to all parts of the State asking for the arrest of Dunn. Railroad officials say they have not seen Dunn since Saturday, when he promised to attend the inquest.

Mrs. P. H. Look of this city is in a critical condition on account of injuries which she received at the Oakland accident last Friday. Her injuries were caused by being pitched violently against the seats of the car. Her physicians fear she will not recover. Funeral services over Luigi Malatesta and his son, Attilio, who lost their lives in the drawbridge disaster, were held today. The remains were escorted to Calvary Cemetery by a number of Italian societies and a long procession of Italian residents.

A LONG BATTLE.

Seventy-three Rounds for the Coast Bantam Championship.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Dal Hawkins and Fred Bogan fought seventy-three rounds at the Golden Gate Athletic Club tonight for the bantam championship of the Pacific Coast. Hawkins did most of the leading and punished Bogan badly about the face. Hawkins, however, was knocked down twice in the seventeenth round and again in the eighteenth, and was nearly knocked out. For the last forty rounds no fighting was done, and the referee declared the contest postponed until tomorrow night.

Horrible Attempt at Suicide.

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—Tonight a roughly dressed man attempted to cut open his stomach with a pocket knife. He said he had been poisoned and wanted to take the poison out. At the police station he said he was a sailor, named Hugh Powers, lately from an Arctic voyage. He came to this city with $160 and went to a dive, where he was poisoned and robbed. This was the last thing he could remember.

Petaluma Happenings.

PETALUMA, June 3.—This afternoon a team owned by Alexander Evans, a farmer living near here, ran away. Evans, in trying to stop them, was knocked down and run over, being severely injured internally.

CONGRESSIONAL.

More Silver Speeches in the Senate.

An Important Amendment to the Revenue Laws Proposed.

Increasing the Appropriation for Cannon for Coast Defenses.

The Day in the House Mainly Devoted to Arguments in an Alabama Contested-election Case.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—Among the memorials presented were resolutions from the Louisiana Legislature extending thanks to Congress for relief afforded the sufferers during the late floods.

The Committee on Education and Labor reported the Senate bill to provide for obligatory attendance at school of children in Alaska, and the Senate bill (without recommendation) to organize a bureau of information relating to employment, occupation and means of livelihood. Placed on the calendar.

The Silver Bill was taken up. Mr. Pugh addressed the Senate. The speech was largely devoted to criticism of the Tariff Bill.

At the conclusion of Pugh's speech the Silver Bill was temporarily laid aside and the following Senate bill was taken from the calendar and passed: To amend the section of the Revised Statutes so as to make it read:

Any person who withdraws any fermented liquor from any bonded barrel or keg or other vessel, upon which a proper stamp has not been affixed, for the purpose of bottling the same, or who carries on the business of bottling fermented liquors in any brewery or other place in which fermented liquor is made, or upon any premises having communication with a brewery or warehouse, shall be liable to a fine of $500 and the property used in such bottling or business shall be liable to forfeiture; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to prevent the withdrawal and transfer of fermented liquors from any of the vats in any brewery by way of pipe or other conduit to another building or place for the sole purpose of bottling the same, such pipe line or conduit to be constructed and operated under suitable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to approval by the Secretary of the Treasury, and all locks and seals prescribed shall be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at the expense of the United States; provided, further, that the tax imposed in section 33.9 of the Revised Statutes shall be paid on all fermented liquor removed from a brewery to a bottling house by means of a pipe or conduit at the time of such removal, and the same shall be disposed of and accounted for in the manner directed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury in the case of the removal of the same for the purpose of bottling the same, shall be subject to the penalties above provided by this section. Every owner, agent or superintendent of any brewery or other place in which fermented liquor is made, who permits any fermented liquor through a pipe line or conduit without payment of the tax thereon, or who attempts to defraud the revenue, shall forfeit all liquors made by and for him, and all utensils and apparatus used in making the same.

To provide for the exportation of fermented liquor in bond without payment of internal revenue tax, the bill provides that from and after January, 1891, fermented liquor may be removed from the place of manufacture or storage for export to a foreign country without payment of tax, in such packages and under such regulations and upon giving such notice, entries, bonds or other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe, and no drawback of tax shall be allowed on fermented liquor so exported on and after January 1, 1891, unless entered for exportation prior to such date.

The Silver Bill was again taken up, and Mr. Farwell addressed the Senate. He declared himself in full accord with the purposes of the bill, but he was in favor of going still further. He would use for money all silver offered, and not a stipulated sum, as provided for in the bill, and he would coin it at its market value. If the price of silver should advance to par with gold (as friends of the bill claim it would), then free coinage would come as a matter of course. What objection could there be, he asked, to putting into the silver dollar one hundred cents' worth of silver? Two other things were necessary: The national bank system should be preserved, and the sub-treasury system

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Plan for a California Exhibit Assuming Shape.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] An adjourned meeting of the World's Fair convention was held this afternoon. The committee on organization reported a plan, recommending that a general convention be held on Thursday, September 11th, next; also, that each county government be allowed five delegates and each local organization be given two representatives and each newspaper one.

The plan was adopted, as was also a supplementary proposition covering all commercial and scientific societies. Patrons of Husbandry and other societies hereafter to be organized.

On a vote it was decided to hold the convention in San Francisco. The report of the sub-committee, recommending the immediate incorporation of the World's Fair association, was adopted. The mayor was instructed by resolution to appoint a committee of eleven on organization, and was allowed until tomorrow to make his selections.

ARID LANDS

NO LONGER OPEN TO ENTRY AND SETTLEMENT.

An Important Opinion by the Attorney-General—Settlers Cannot Take Up Tracts in the Arid Region.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The Secretary of the Interior today transmitted to the Senate an opinion by the Attorney-General construing the act of October 2, 1888, which appropriated the sum of $10,000 for investigating the extent to which the arid region may be recovered by irrigation. The opinion is transmitted in response to a resolution by the Senate inquiring particularly as to the views of the Interior Department concerning the scope and effect of the following section of the act of October 2d:

And all lands which may hereafter be designated or selected by such United States surveyors for sites for reservoirs, ditches or canals for irrigation purposes, and all lands made susceptible of irrigation by such reservoirs, ditches or canals, are from this time henceforth reserved from sale as the property of the United States, and shall not be subject, after the passage of this act, to entry, settlement or occupation until further provided by law.

The Attorney-General stated his conclusions, as follows:

The object of the act is manifest. It was to prevent entry upon and settlement and sale of all that part of the public lands of the United States which could be improved by a general system of irrigation, and all lands which might thereafter be designated or selected by United States surveyors as sites for reservoirs, ditches or canals in such systems. It was the purpose of Congress by this act to suspend entry upon and settlement of lands which would come within the improving operation of the plans of irrigation to be reported by the director of the geological survey under this act, and to reserve for the benefit of the people the lands which might be so improved, and to prevent the possibility of the lands being so improved being sold to private parties.

The general effect of this opinion, if the law is not modified, will be to reserve from settlement and entry practically the whole of the great arid regions of the West. The Secretary, in his letter of transmittal, suggests that, if Congress does not fully concur in the purposes of the law, it should take the business in hand at once, to so modify it as it may deem the public interest requires.

Under Eighteen Indictments.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—H. J. Palmer was brought before Judge Van Dyke today to plead to eighteen indictments for forgery. His attorney filed a motion to set them aside on the grounds that they were not found, indorsed and presented as prescribed by the Penal Code; that the Grand Jury finding the indictments was composed of only eighteen persons, which was not a legal jury. Defendant was foreman on James G. Fair's ranch in Yolo county, and he is charged with forging receipts of workmen's claims for wages. Palmer has given bonds in $2000 on each indictment, making a total of $36,000.

Disclosures as to Southern Election Methods.

How Colored Voters Are Disfranchised in South Carolina.

Fresh Reports of Violations of the Chinese Exclusion Act.

A Case of Tweedism in the Army Being Prosecuted by the Treasury Department—National Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The majority report in the case of Miller vs. Elliott, from the Seventh South Carolina District, was submitted to the House Committee on Elections today. The report is somewhat sensational in that it declares that the entire South Carolina registration and election laws are unconstitutional. The basis for this declaration is that the State law imposes a number of restrictions upon the exercise of the right of suffrage which are in conflict with the State Constitution. The report also states that a number of negroes have been compelled by poverty, while awaiting the maturing of their cotton crops, to negotiate their registration certificates to traders, who immediately sent them to political headquarters, with the result that the negroes are permanently disfranchised.

The report recites the fact that in certain precincts the ballot-boxes were separated in the case of each office, and that voters were misled by an intentional shifting of boxes, so that the judges of election were able to throw out all of the ballots cast in the wrong boxes.

"There was also," says the report, "evidence of ballot-box stuffing." Summing up, it is found that taking the position most favorable to the sitting member, the contestant Miller had a majority of 757; while if the law is strictly followed, his majority will reach 1443. Wilson of Missouri will prepare a minority report.

ARMY TWEEDISM.

An Officer Charged with Standing in with Contractors.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] When the announcement was made that Capt. Alonzo L. Millmore of the Quartermaster's department, U.S.A., was to be tried by court-martial at Tucson, Ariz., on the charges of fraud against the Government, it was intimated that he was involved in questionable transactions when stationed in St. Louis several years ago, and that, although he could not be so punished, there were others involved who might be reached by the civil courts.

The Treasury Department looked into the matter. As a result, proceedings have been instituted in St. Louis against the Hartley & Canwell Company of that city to recover $58,000 alleged to have been fraudulently obtained from the Government with the aid of Millmore. It is charged that the firm presented vouchers for supplies never delivered, which Millmore had paid by the Government. The supplies thus obtained, it is charged, were divided between the two.

INTRUDING CELESTIALS.

More Reports of Chinese Dodging the Exclusion Act.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—[By the Associated Press.] A. Willard, United States Consul at Guaymas, Mexico, in a letter transmitted to the Senate today, reports the arrival of 111 more Chiamen at Mazatlan. The 39 Chiamen, whose arrival at Guaymas was reported in a previous letter, Willard states, have left Guaymas for towns in Sonora near the frontier, and are waiting an opportunity to cross the border. The United States officers were notified.

Levi W. Myers, United States Consul at Victoria, B. C., tells how 22 Chinamen were undoubtedly smuggled into the United States by the steamer North Star. The Chinamen were taken on board the vessel about midnight, and although the Canadian collector had men watching her, she slipped out of the harbor in safety and managed to elude a pursuing tug sent after her. The price charged for this work is $20 per head.

Myers says: "If this practice is not stopped more cutters must be placed on the sound, and spies must be employed to aid the Canadian authorities."

No Agreement on Pensions.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—After a talk yesterday between Senator Davis and Representative Morrill, chairman of the two committees on pensions, it was believed an agreement would be formally reached today by the conferees on the general pension bill; but when the House conferees came up this morning with the instructions of the Republican caucus of last night to maintain the principle of service pensions, it was manifest that an agreement could not be secured, and a vote to report disagreement to the respective houses was adopted.

A Malicious Wretch on Wilson's Trail.

HE STABS A LOT OF BURROS.

Comparative Figures of Two School Censuses—The Newsboys' Reading-room Opened—The Chamber.

A case of an exceedingly malicious nature is reported from Mr. Wilson. Last Friday quite a party was ascending the trail, there being some ten or twelve burros doing the laborious part of the ascent. On the way up three young men from Los Angeles met the party. They were coming down. They had a big mule with them, and had been fishing for several days, coming home via the trail. They had their traps on the mule, and were walking themselves. One of them had a bowie knife, and slyly stabbed the mules of the party in the flanks as they passed. His movements were not noticed until the party had passed, when it was discovered that nine of the burros were bleeding in their flanks, particularly the last one, which had two or three ugly gashes cut on him.

When the party realized what had happened, it was too late to make any resistance, the boys having gone on down the trail. They were very mad, but that did not do good, and the wounded burros were cared for as well as possible. The cutting seems to have been done out of pure wantonness. The young man who did the cutting was not drunk, and there is some probability that a complaint will be sworn out against him.

THE CHAMBER.

Donations to the Exhibit—Kansas City Market-house.

The usual crowd visited the permanent exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The following donations were sent to the chamber yesterday:

Mrs. Hobill, towels for ladies' annex; Alpine Plaster and Cement Company, and plaster; Maj. Nulton, of Vernon, lemons, oranges and pineapples; J. P. Chosen of Antelope Valley, sheep barley; William H. Curlin of Calhuenia, green corn; Mr. Senate of Calhuenia, green corn; Dr. B. B. Briggs of Crescent, wheat and alfalfa; J. Selottish of Duarte, vegetables; Louis Scott of El Monte, corn; George Dunham, strawberries; George H. Hamilton of Sierra Madre, wheat and alfalfa; E. J. Moore of El Monte, alfalfa; John W. Roberts of Savannah, potatoes and alfalfa.

Yesterday Secretary Patton received the following letter from the Mayor of Kansas City regarding the public market of that city:

"Referring to your request of May 23d, relating to our public market, will say we have a market-house, situated on the public square, containing fifty-six stalls, each stall ten feet from by twelve feet deep, which we rent at $1.50 per front foot per month. Tenants pay no city license; gas, water and light furnished by city. The stalls are all rented and we could double the number at the same rate. The public square covers a block, and we collect a fee of 25 cents per day from each wagon. The city realized $8000 clear from the last year, 1889. The city employs one market master at $1500 per year to attend to this."

The Country for Poor Men.

(Southern Californian, London.)

Supposing that you are in Southern California on one of the small tracts where "dull farming" is unknown. We will consider you on a 10-acre tract situated near the foothills, where there is either no frosts during the winter, or so little that no injury will result. Such a spot is the most reliable; for where there is no frost it will soon make a difference in your income in your favor; for it makes a difference "whether your trees lie dormant two months or four; whether your alfalfa patch goes to sleep for four months or whether it grows right along; whether your peas, etc., hang back, or blossom and bear; whether your potatoes are fit to dig in February or whether you have to wait until March to plant them; whether you can put strawberries on the market in January or February or must wait until April or May."

The facts are there are hundreds of farmers in the foothills of the Sierras and along the valleys who are doing well with small fruits, poultry, vegetables, etc., and there is room for many more. You hardly ever hear of these obscure producers; but they are here and more coming. You will find them along the hillsides with pipes from springs carrying the refreshing waters to their lands, or with an artesian well, or beside the ditch which brings the water from the mountains. Potatoes, peas, onions, cabbages, carrots, beets, cauliflower, were planted at once, and in summer corn, beans, melons and other things were put in; a small patch of alfalfa for a cow and horse was sown. This is a perennial plant which with sufficient water will yield eight to ten tons a year per acre. As soon as one thing is taken up another is planted, and so the work goes on. In the intervals he can set in some grapes and olive cuttings, plant orange and lemon seeds, and thus grow his own stock. When he comes to dig his holes he can have the ground wet or dry, just as he desires to make digging easy. Between the trees he can plant corn or potatoes or small fruits. Next he can put in a few apricot trees, peaches, nectarines, peaches, cherries, apples, pears, quinces, loquats, plums, grapes, guavas, pomegranates and figs.

Two months from the time he plants he has his own vegetables to eat, and in seven months more vegetables, some berries and eggs to sell.

For a dwelling you may build "a thin one-roomed house," and when you have made money, turn your first building into an outhouse. A man may live in a tent for a while. There are places where men begin things and never finish them. They are almost hid with roses and geraniums and jasmynes and great orange trees, lemon trees, olives and other fine fruits and shrubbery which they raised themselves.

The Coming Arcadia.

Rural California is to be a new thing under the sun. Here the distinction between town and country is to be wiped out, or rather the definition of town is to be radically modified. The unfortunate village that was so short-sighted as to plant itself into 25-foot lots is doomed hereabouts. The coming and only possible town in this favored region is illustrated in Riverside. Its lots will be measured by the acre instead of the foot. Every citizen is to be a self-supporting producer. No longer will the town depend upon the country. The town and country will prevail here. The house city system, whereby it is possible to rear a human being to years of maturity without removing from the infantile fear of the most docile domestic animals, will prevail. These aggregations of farms will obtain a home life, wholesome and highly developed. The saloon, two miles away, will not usurp attention as it was only two blocks away. Ventilating spaces between families will beget more individuality. The old system of town and country built up where is 300 acres to make a farm, cannot prosper where 10 acres constitute a farm. Southern California is destined to develop the choicest mode of existence on the continent.

STATE AND COAST.

Since December last, nine new post-offices have been established in Los Angeles county. They are at Lusader, Monserate, Ogilby, Rainbow, Simplicia, Bonnell, Orcutt, Warner, Linda Vista.

W. E. Oughton, for a number of years connected with the State printing office, and at the time of his demise its proof-reader, died at Sacramento on Friday. He was Past Thrice Illustrious Grand Master of the G. G. R. and S. M. of California.

The Waitaker Pointer believes that a 100-acre walnut orchard belonging to B. Guirado has been sold for $100,000 to a syndicate who will attempt a corner on walnuts this season.

THE TIMES IN PASADENA.

The advantage to residents of Pasadena in buying THE TIMES consists in the fact that they not only get in its columns the news of their own city every day, but also the news of Los Angeles, of the State, the Coast, the East and the world.

The paper is served regularly by carrier, at an early hour every morning, to the residences and business places of citizens, at the same price charged in Los Angeles.

The Times.

BRANCH OFFICE, No. 26 1/2 E. Colorado St.
NOTE AND COMMENT.

The election furnished all the excitement that was going yesterday.

CONSIDERING that this is the beginning of summer it is worthy of note that comparatively few people are going east. The fact is becoming more generally recognized that summer time is the most delightful season of the year in Southern California.

The voting for school trustees resulted in the election of Messrs. Throop, Wood and Buchanan—the "Caucus" ticket—by very handsome majorities. The result was received throughout the city with much satisfaction.

MERCED will hereafter be known as Rotterdam. A Dutch colony has been started there by the Holland and California Land Company. Some two hundred Hollanders are now at Merced, the latest additions to the colony being a party of seventy-six persons, who arrived in New York about a week ago on the steamship Spardam from Rotterdam. The party included several families and a number of unmarried men, all fairly well-to-do farmers. The colonists had with them several horses and a stock of farming implements. They were brought to California on a special train.

Most Americans, especially those who live in Eastern States, who have the money and leisure take a trip to Europe. Pasadena people who have a short vacation and a small amount of wealth to spend stay at home or take the regulation trip north. Surely the latter class have no great reason to complain, for there are many places within a few hours' ride of Pasadena where an entire summer or a vacation of a few weeks can be delightfully spent. Switzer's Camp is easy of access, possesses all the facilities for making the tourist comfortable, and is as charming a mountain retreat as can be found anywhere.

What mountain summit can rival Wilson's Peak in scenic attractions or the delights of camp life there afforded? If life at the seashore is preferred, there is lovely Catalina, queen of the islands off California's coast, and whose praises are continually sung by every one who has ever tasted of its attractions; Santa Monica, more improved than ever before; Redondo, with its long hotel and athletic grounds, and Long Beach, the delight of surf bathers. All these places are near by, and surrounded by scenery and a climate as fine as any European country can boast of. What more can any one ask for? Even the attractions, which a red-hot tropical atmosphere has for some people, may be had by riding east on the Santa Fé some sixty miles to San Bernardino. The man who can't put in a vacation in his liking in this country is hard to please.

WINNING MEN.

Who Will Be Pasadena's Next School Trustees?

THE CAUCUS TICKET ELECTED.

The Citizens' Candidates Badly Snowed Under—The Result Received with Great Satisfaction.

Yesterday's election for School Trustees passed off quietly, but the friends of the different candidates were actively at work all day until the polls closed at sunset. The interest manifested in the election during the past week naturally brought out a large vote. Nearly five hundred votes had been cast before noon, and when the polls closed there were eight hundred and forty-two ballots in the box.

Friends of the ticket nominated at Thursday night's caucus were more active and numerous than the backers of the Appeal nominees. The former faction had in service a number of carriages, bearing in conspicuous letters on either side the words, "Regular Ticket—Throop, Wood, Buchanan." The opposing faction headed their ballot with the words "Citizens' ticket," but the conveyances they had hired to haul voters to the polling places went unadorned. Every available voter was called into service, the campaign being conducted with a vigor that would have done credit to a Presidential election.

A feature of the contest was that the result was much of a mystery until the ballots had been counted. It was observed early in the day that Mr. Throop's name was being scratched to some extent in favor of Mr. Holder, the friends of the latter candidate having worked hard to effect such a compromise. One man during the afternoon offered to wager even money that the Wood, Spaulding and Holder would be the men elected, but he found so many takers that he retired from the field without putting up any money.

It was nearly 8 o'clock when work was begun counting the ballots. Two hours elapsed before the result was made known. The following are the official figures. The upper name in each pair was the caucus or regular ticket nominee:

	For one year—	For two years—	For three years—
O. P. Throop	291	2	2
O. P. Goid	291	2	2
For two years—
J. A. Wood	11	537	11
E. E. Spaulding	6	308	6
For three years—
C. W. Buchanan	11	1	536
C. F. Holder	31	4	310

These figures indicate the election of the regular ticket as nominated at the caucus by handsome majorities, averaging 228 votes. The whole number of votes cast was 842; the whole number of straight caucus tickets voted, 477; whole number citizens' tickets voted, 281; whole number citizens' tickets scratched, 38; whole number citizens' tickets scratched, 23.

The scratching was much less general than it was conjectured it would be, and in no way effected the result. The supporters of the citizens' ticket left for home early, as was known that their candidates had been badly snowed under. A crowd of enthusiasts on the other side waited for the official figures, and the result was received with great enthusiasm.

The election board consisted of Messrs. J. A. Buchanan, Mr. Fordham, W. A. Heiss and J. W. Sheaff.

FOR COMPANY B.

An Entertainment in the Opera-house Next Week.

The Tyroleans will give an entertainment in the Grand Opera-house, Thursday evening, June 12th, for the benefit of Company B. N.G.C. The performance will be of a literary and dramatic character, and will be given under the direction of Mrs. B. M. Riggs. Whatever profit may result will be used by the Markham Guards for the purchase of tents, which will be needed for the annual encampment which comes off in August, and also for furnishing the rooms occupied by the company in the Wooster block.

The members of the company have made strides in perfecting the requirements of a soldier and have made the organization one in which Pasadenaians can take just pride. Our citizens should lend their support by patronizing next week's performance.

MAY'S MORTALITY.

Report of Health Officer Sherk for May is as follows:

Deaths from all causes eleven, which is an annual rate of 12.5 per 1000. Six deaths occurred inside of town limits. Five deaths occurred in the surrounding districts, including Moorovio and Sierra Madre.

Of the deaths, three were of persons under 1 year of age; one from 1 to 23 years; three from 24 to 30 years; two from 30 to 40 years; one from 40 to 50 years, and one over 60 years.

Six were males; five females. Four were natives of California, three of them under 1 year of age; six were natives of Atlantic States; one was foreign born. All were whites.

Four died from consumption, none natives of California; two from heart disease; one from cancer; one from bronchitis; one gastro enteritis; one from eclampsia (convulsions); one still born.

Three cases of scarlet fever were reported in various parts of the town.

Might Have Been Worse.

W. H. Lewis, an employe on the Cross road, jumped off the train arriving here at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, at the engine-house, and as a result had a bad fall. The train was moving faster than Lewis had calculated on and he was thrown on his head by the side of the track. One of the passengers happened to see the accident and the train was stopped. The injured man was brought to the Colorado-street station, where he was attended by a physician, who found that he had not been seriously hurt. Lewis solemnly swears that he will never again jump from a moving train.

The next meeting of the Marengo Avenue Chautauque Circle will be held next Monday evening at the residence of Maj. C. M. Skillen, southwest corner of Colorado street and Los Robles avenue. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will come before the meeting. The Latin course will comprise chapters 6 and 7. In physics, the subject of "Heat" will be discussed.

MONTHLY MEETING

Of the Directors of the P. L. V. Land and Water Company.

A regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Pasadena Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company was held Monday evening.

The report of Secretary Habbick showed receipts for the month to be $823.12; expenditures, $920.61.

An informal and lengthy discussion followed on the matter of providing facilities for storing an increased supply of water. The subject was referred to the executive committee to examine into and report upon. The contract for plumbing was awarded to E. White, Son & Co.

Sunday Closing.

The following strong points are made in the address to the people by the Cincinnati "committee of five hundred" on Sunday closing:

There is an undoubted force in the argument that, if the saloons are open and the day is to be spent in squandering the support of the family by saloon dissipation, which also renders the man physically incapable of what is due to his employer on Monday—then, and under those circumstances, it were better he should put in the day in the workshop. We insist that neither alternative should be accepted, but rather, while the rest day is guaranteed to the wage-worker by the State, the saloons shall not be allowed, in defiance of the law, to allure to lawlessness, drunkenness and poverty.

An intolerable—not to say exasperating—feature of this case is the insolent air of haughty lordship assumed by the Sunday saloon and its month-pieces toward all who dare to assert their manhood and insist on the supremacy of law. An offensive bossism, whose inspirations are from the criminal classes, assume to dictate what laws shall be or shall not be enforced, and what men shall or shall not be elected.

WE PROPOSE to take a hand in the management of our own affairs, and do whatever may be possible toward securing municipal officers who can be depended on to honor their oath of office by faithfully maintaining the supremacy of laws. With that in view, we have signed the following agreement:

"We, the undersigned, being convinced that it is essential to the material and moral prosperity of the people of our city that our civil laws respecting the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, be faithfully enforced, agree to become members of a committee of five hundred, who shall cooperate to secure the nomination and election of such municipal officers as shall have pledged themselves to the faithful enforcement of these laws."

In these, our municipal affairs, and in the interest of the Sunday laws—which so widely involve the social, physical and moral interests of the people—we set the cause of the Sunday above our party affiliations. We stand for the law and for its enforcement; let that never be forgotten. Those who oppose us necessarily put themselves on the side of the law-breaker and advocate his cause. This alone is sufficient to be our perpetual vindication, and the constant confusion of those who are against us.

NOT TO ENFORCE RELIGION.

We do not seek to make men religious, nor even moral, by law. We do not say what they shall do on that day. But we do contend that they shall not, in violation of law, take away the rights of others.
